2006 Tammany Cast Iron Mechanical Bank

J. & E. Stevens Company Cromwell, Connecticut 1880's. Place a coin in his hand and its weight causes the hand to lower and deposit the coin into his pocket. His nod signifies that he has accepted your gift/bribe. Made of Cast Iron. A fun variation to add to your collection. In Fine Paint Condition. This bank was custom painted a long time ago. Does not black light as repainted. Estimate: 225.00 - 300.00

2010 Bad Accident Cast Iron Mechanical Bank

J. & E. Stevens Company 1880's of Cromwell, Connecticut. When a small boy emerges from behind some foliage, he frightens the mule, who rears upward, causing the cart and the farmer to topple backwards. The coin has been deposited. Made of Cast Iron. Worked when tested. Very Good Condition. The cart's top plate is broken in half. No coin trap. Estimate: 500.00 - 700.00

2007 Organ Cat & Dog Cast Iron Mechanical Bank

Kyser & Rex Co. Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 1882. The monkey doffs his hat in thanks for the penny you have given him. The animals rotate and the bells chime when the crank is turned. Made of Cast Iron. Excellent Condition (A little extra wear on baseplate front). The monkey's arm does not move, a wire is disconnected (simple repair). No key. Estimate: 500.00 - 700.00

2011 Darktown Battery Cast Iron Mechanical Bank

J. & E. Stevens 1880's of Cromwell, Connecticut. Place a coin in the pitcher's hand and press the lever. He pitches the coin and the batter swings, but the coin sails so quickly by him that it deflects off the chest protector of the catcher, dropping into the bank. Can't you hear the umpire screaming "Yer out!?" Worked when tested. Professionally Restored. Looks amazing. Estimate: 1,400.00 - 1,800.00

2008 I Always Did 'Spise a Mule Jockey Iron Bank
